

WEST SUSSEX

WOODTURNERS

OCTOBER 2023 NEWSLETTER

An Associated Club of the AWGB

So here we go for another exciting day at West Sussex Woodturners. No I think I might be wrong there it was the AGM, if you weren't there you didn't miss much. I guess if you were there you were just trying to ensure that some swine didn't vote you onto the committee when you weren't looking.

Ian made a couple of announcements before we were all bored to tears. Firstly we have a load of Girl Guides visiting us at Amberley on Saturday 7th October as usual we could do with some more volunteers especially turners. If you can make it contact Colin Smith.

Don't forget the Awards evening if you want to sign up speak to Ray Burton in the absence of Steve Savage.

Suibscriptions are now due so please contact Colin Willetts to pay asap.

Having got the boring bit over and done with we moved to 3 members demonstrating their skills. Our 3 volunteers were Alan Wallington, Andy Heath and Ray Thompson.

I think Alan is doing his famous impersonation of a Rabbi. Andy is trying to remember who conned him into volunteering.

Ray is keeping his head down in case Andy remembers who conned him.

A selection of tools Ray was demonstrating.

Ray is clearly lining up future demonstrators as he organised Geoff Godfrey and David Gear to have a go.

MEMBERS SHOW AND TELL TABLE:

A rather splendid lidded box from Tony Trigg.

The table lamp that Tom Bradbury was making a last month's meeting.

A segmented platter by Lionel Thain

Three pieces by Ray Thompson

NEXT MONTH:

Is an all day demonstration by Ed Oliver so bring your lunch.
